A different version number should be given to the document if substantive changes to the contents of the document have been made. Different issue numbers within a given version indicate minor changes only such as spelling and grammatical corrections.

Note on red text: The red text provides an explanation of the suggested contents for each section and some examples. In the Framemaker template the red text is defined as "Conditional text" with the "Template Guide" tag. All the Template Guide text may be displayed or hidden by the following menu options:

Special/Conditional Text.../Show | Hide...

The colour of the Template Guide text may be changed in the following way:

Special/Conditional Text.../select "Template Guide"/Edit Condition Tag...
